BY COMMAND OF LIEUTENANT GENERAL SHERIDAN:

R. C. DRUM,
Adjutant General.

OFFICIAL:

Assistant Adjutant General.

[NOTE.—Special Orders, No. 301, is the last of the series of 1886.]

Chief Clerk,

SPECIAL ORDERS, No. 2.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, January 4, 1887.

1. By direction of the Secretary of War Private Thomas Cotten, Battery E, 2d Artillery, now with his battery, having enlisted under false pretences, will be discharged the service of the United States on receipt of this order by the commanding officer of his station. Under paragraph 2464 of the Regulations he is entitled to no pay or allowances, and final statements shall not be furnished him.

2. By direction of the Secretary of War a delay of forty days, on account of sickness, in complying with paragraph 1, Special Orders, No. 266, November 15, 1886, from this office, is granted Post Quartermaster Sergeant Alexander Egger, now at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

3. By direction of the Secretary of War, under the act approved June 3, 1884, and to complete his record, the discharge of 1st Sergeant Thaddeus Hoke, Company B, 30th Indiana Infantry Volunteers, February 9, 1865, is amended to take effect December 18, 1864; his muster into service as 1st lieutenant, same company and regiment, February 10, 1865, is amended to date December 19, 1864, and he is mustered for pay in said grade during the period embraced between the aforesaid dates.

4. By direction of the Secretary of War Private Hugh McMullen, Battery M, 2d Artillery, now in the custody of the civil authorities, will be discharged without character from the service of the United States to date November 21, 1886 (date of arrest by civil authorities), by the commanding officer of the post at which the battery may be serving. This soldier is not entitled to travel-pay.

1. By direction of the Secretary of War Captain Chandler P. Eakin, 1st Artillery, is detailed to act in conjunction with Captain Charles F. Powell, Corps of Engineers, engineer of the 13th light-house district, and Mr. J. Cabell Breckinridge, surveyor general of Washington Territory, who have been designated to represent, respectively, the Light-House Board, Treasury Department, and the General Land Office, Interior Department, for the purpose of considering the questions of boundary lines, jurisdiction, &c., which have been raised between the military and light-house authorities respecting the control of a portion of the military reservation of Fort Canby, Washington Territory, and to adjust the lines, so that the part occupied by the light-house establishment may not interfere with that occupied by the War Department for fortifications, magazines, and other buildings which are now located on the land that is claimed as a part of the light-house reserve.

2. By direction of the Secretary of War a board of survey, to consist of—

Lieutenant Colonel Amos Beckwith, assistant commissary general of subsistence;

Major Charles W. Foster, quartermaster;

1st Lieutenant Thomas S. Mumford, 13th Infantry; will assemble at the general depot of the Quartermaster's Department, St. Louis, Missouri, on the 24th instant, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the purpose of examining into, reporting upon, and fixing the responsibility, if practicable, for certain deficiencies in knit undershirts and bed-sheets discovered in original packages received at the depot from the general depot of the Quartermaster's Department, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Fort Davis, Texas, and for which Captain Forrest H. Hathaway, assistant quartermaster, is responsible.

The board will make such recommendations, the facts permitting, as will enable Captain Hathaway to properly account for the deficiencies.

The junior member of the board will act as recorder.

3. Colonel Robert S. La Motte, 13th Infantry (promoted from lieutenant colonel 12th Infantry), will, upon the expiration of his present leave of absence, proceed to Fort Wingate, New Mexico, and report by telegram to the commanding general Department of Arizona for assignment to duty with his regiment. The travel enjoined is necessary for the public service.

4. Major Charles A. Wikoff, 14th Infantry (promoted from captain, 11th Infantry), will report in person, at the expiration of his present leave of absence, to the commanding general Department of the Columbia, at the headquarters of that department, for assignment to a station. The travel enjoined is necessary for the public service.

5. By direction of the Secretary of War Recruit Thomas J. McArthur, General Service, now at Davids' Island, New York, having enlisted under false pretences, will be discharged the service of the United States on receipt of this order by the commanding officer of his station. Under paragraph 2464 of the Regulations he is entitled to no pay or allowances, and final statements shall not be furnished him.

6. By direction of the Secretary of War the commanding general Department of Texas will grant a furlough for six months to Hospital Steward Alfred Whitaker, now on duty at Fort Hancock, Texas.

7. Leave of absence for three months and ten days, to take effect March 10, 1887, is granted 2d Lieutenant Edward S. Avis, 5th Infantry.

8. By direction of the Secretary of War 1st Lieutenant Herbert J. Slocum, 7th Cavalry, will report in person to the commanding officer Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, for duty at that post, reporting by letter to the superintendent of the recruiting service, New York City. The travel enjoined is necessary for the public service.

9. With the approval of the Secretary of War the extension of leave of absence on surgeon's certificate of disability granted 1st Lieutenant William W. Tyler, 13th Infantry, in Special Orders, No. 271, November 20, 1886, from this office, is still further extended one month on surgeon's certificate of disability.
